New! Healing Eucharists and Bible for Beginners— Join us on Wednesday evenings this Fall

Fr. Daniel will lead a four week class preceded weekly with a brief "Healing Eucharist". This course entitled "The Bible for Beginners" is a great opportunity to learn or refresh your basic knowledge of scripture, especially the Old Testament. Dates for the class are Wednesdays: Oct. 28, Nov. 4, 11, and 18 at 6:30 p.m.

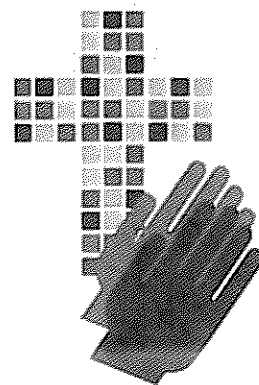

Fr. Daniel was reared in a Fundamentalist/Evangelical tradition and later studied those traditions academically for his doctoral work. He's also well versed in the Anglican tradition and classical/liberal interpretations of the Bible. He is well equipped to help the "left" understand the "right". In addition to examining the arc of biblical history, he will focus in on some systemic themes. Having degrees in Bible, Theology, Philosophy, Ethics, and Religious History, and graduate studies in Systems Theory, he crosses disciplines to offer unique and avant-garde interpretations of scripture. The Healing Eucharist is open to anyone and everyone. The half hour service will have a brief homily and incorporates the ancient practice of Laying on of Hands and Anointing with Oil.
