If you are visiting, please fill out a Visitor Card and give it to an usher or clergy member. Our regular Sunday worship is at 8 am, 9:15 am Joy!, and 10 am. There is a time of fellowship following each service, which is a great time to meet others and the clergy.

Sunday School for grades K-12 begins at 10:00 a.m. Moms and Dads of preschoolers meet at 9:45 a.m., on the playground if weather permits. Nursery Care is offered Sundays from 9:30 a.m. till 11:30 a.m. Adult education begins at 9 a.m. Sundays in the Guilds Room, just down the hall from the Church.

By joining us this day, and each week, you give witness to the continued truth of Christ's presence in the world. Together we can proclaim the Good News that the Christ is born anew in the hearts and lives of those who follow him.

Merry Christmas!

Special thanks to Julie Sebastian who is coordinating the Pageant once again this year!

THE PAGEANT

Please be seated during the entire duration of the pageant.

Please help sing hymns printed below.

Please hold photos until the end.

HYMN

“O Little Town of Bethlehem”

O little town of Bethlehem, how still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep the silent stars go by;
yet in thy dark streets shineth the everlasting Light;
the hopes and fears of all the years are met in thee tonight.

THE FIRST READING FROM LUKE’S GOSPEL

Reader In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. Everyone went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph went from the town of Nazareth to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child.

As Mary and Joseph enter, we sing:

HYMN

“Once in Royal David’s City”

Irby

Once in royal David’s city stood a lowly cattle shed, where a mother laid her baby in a manger for his bed:
Mary was that mother mild, Jesus Christ her little child.

THE SECOND READING FROM LUKE’S GOSPEL

Reader While they were there, the time came for Mary to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

As an Angel brings the Baby Jesus to Mary, we sing:

HYMN

“Away in a Manger”

Cradle Song

Away in a manger, no crib for a bed,
the little Lord Jesus laid down his sweet head.
The stars in the sky looked down where he lay,
the little Lord Jesus asleep in the hay.

The cattle are lowing, the baby awakes, but little Lord Jesus no crying he makes.
I love thee, Lord Jesus! Look down from the sky, and stay by my bed until morning is nigh.

THE THIRD READING FROM LUKE'S GOSPEL

Reader In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them,

Angel Do not be afraid; for see - I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.

Reader And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying,

People Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom God favors!

During the following hymn, the Angels enter, and we sing:

HYMN "Angels We Have Heard On High" Gloria

Angels we have heard on high, sweetly singing o'er the plains.
and the mountains in reply echoing their joyous strains.
Gloria, in excelsis Deo! Gloria, in excelsis Deo!

THE FOURTH READING FROM LUKE'S GOSPEL

Reader When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another,

Shepherd Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us.

Reader So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger.

Reader When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them.

Shepherds come forward, we sing:

HYMN "The First Nowell"

The First Nowell the angel did say was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay;
in fields as they lay, keeping their sheep,
on a cold winter's night that was so deep.
Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, born is the King of Israel.

THE FIFTH READING FROM LUKE'S GOSPEL

Reader When Jesus was born in Bethlehem in the days of Herod the King, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem. For they had seen his star in the East and had come to worship him.

Star I am the star you see from afar. When it is night, I shine so bright. Come follow me; a king you will see. He was just born this very morn.

Reader The star which they had seen in the East went before them, until it came to rest over the place where the child was. When they saw the star they rejoiced exceedingly with great joy.

During the following hymn, the procession of kings follows the star up the center aisle to the creche. We sing:

HYMN "We Three Kings of Orient Are"

We three kings of Orient are, bearing gifts we traverse afar,
field and fountain, moor and mountain,
following yonder star.
O star of wonder, star of night,
star with royal beauty bright;
westward leading, still proceeding, guide us to thy perfect light!

THE SIXTH READING FROM MATTHEW'S AND LUKE'S GOSPELS

Reader Going into the house where Jesus was, the wise men saw the young child with Mary his mother and they fell down and worshipped him. Then opening their treasures they offered him gifts:

King Hail, newborn king of the Jews! We offer you these gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh.

Reader Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart.

Reader And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

After the singing of the next carol, you are invited to take photos of the pageant.

HYMN "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing"

Hark! the herald angels sing glory to the newborn King!
Peace on earth and mercy mild, God and sinners reconciled!
Joyful, all ye nations, rise, join the triumph of the skies;
with the angelic host proclaim Christ is born in Bethlehem!
Hark! the herald angels sing glory to the newborn King!
Mild he lays his glory by, born that we no more may die, born to raise us from the earth, born to give us second birth.
Risen with healing in his wings, light and life to all he brings, hail, the Sun of Righteousness! hail, the heaven-born Prince of Peace!
Hark! the herald angels sing glory to the new-born King!

Children return to parents in costume while set is removed. Please return costumes when leaving.

HYMN

The congregation joins in singing the refrain.

The Soloists sing the stanzas.

The musical score is written for a hymn in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It features a treble and bass staff. The first system is labeled 'Refrain' and contains the lyrics: 'Go tell it on the moun - tain, O-ver the hills and ev - 'ry - where;'. The second system contains the lyrics: 'Go tell it on the moun - tain That Je - sus Christ is born!'. The music consists of a simple melody in the treble staff and a supporting bass line in the bass staff.

Celebrant Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS

Puer nobis

Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and God of might.
Heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry, Ho - san - na in the High - est.
Bles - sed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord, Ho - san - na in the high - est, Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Celebrant We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son.

For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Celebrant Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with the ever blessed Virgin Mary, blessed Joseph, and all your saints, we may enter the ever lasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
